

ABOUT TAAC

Since 1978, the Trade Adjustment Assistance Center serving New York, New Jersey and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (TAAC) has helped more than 1,500 firms recover from the effects of foreign competition. The center has provided more than $60 million in assistance. If your company has experienced increased foreign competition, a decline in sales or production and a decline or impending decline in employment, the TAAC may be able to help you.

The TAAC is one of 11 regional centers throughout the country that provides assistance under the Trade Adjustment Assistance for Firms (TAAF) program sponsored by the U.S. Department of Commerce (Economic Development Administration). The TAAC will assist import-impacted firms in New York, New Jersey and Puerto Rico in strategic areas of importance, including:

- ◆ Management
- ◆ Marketing
- ◆ Finance
- ◆ Information technology
- ◆ Manufacturing/engineering
- ◆ ISO/QS/TS/UL/CE certification

The TAAC, a nonprofit organization, is administered by the Research Foundation for the State University of New York at Binghamton University.

There is no cost to determine qualification for the program. All inquiries are confidential.
